Artland Announces Change of Ownership

June 1st, 2023

Copenhagen, Denmark - We are pleased to announce that the Hornbæk-based investment firm ASD Invest ApS has successfully acquired Artland and that Allan Sønderskov Darré & Poul Oddershede are now the new owners of Artland.

The acquisition will strengthen Artland's key-player position in the art industry and further enhance the company's ability to provide exceptional digital products and services, in line with its long-standing mission to deliver an important and innovative segment of the art market to galleries and collectors.

Sønderskov Darré & Oddershede assure Artland's partner galleries, users and other business partners that the company's commitment to maintaining strong and successful collaborations remains unwavering and that the Team has been working to bring more choice and even greater value to Artland's industry-leading services and product offering.

As the new owners state, "This acquisition opens up new, exciting prospects, and we are confident that it will pave the way for mutually beneficial growth and success for Artland and our partners."
